Private Grants Pass Homesite with Well, Septic Approval, and Mountain Views

This 2.17-acre residential lot in the Jumpoff Joe Creek area of Grants Pass offers a strong head start for buyers looking to build in a private Southern Oregon setting. The property features a treed, natural landscape with mountain and territorial views, a peaceful rural feel, and convenient access back to town.

Development Features Already Started

Key improvements are already in place or underway. The property has a well with a reported 48 gallons per minute per the well log, standard septic approval, a partially cut homesite pad, and a partially cut interior road. Power is nearby, located just across the road, and the homesite is allowed through the existing zoning entitlement.

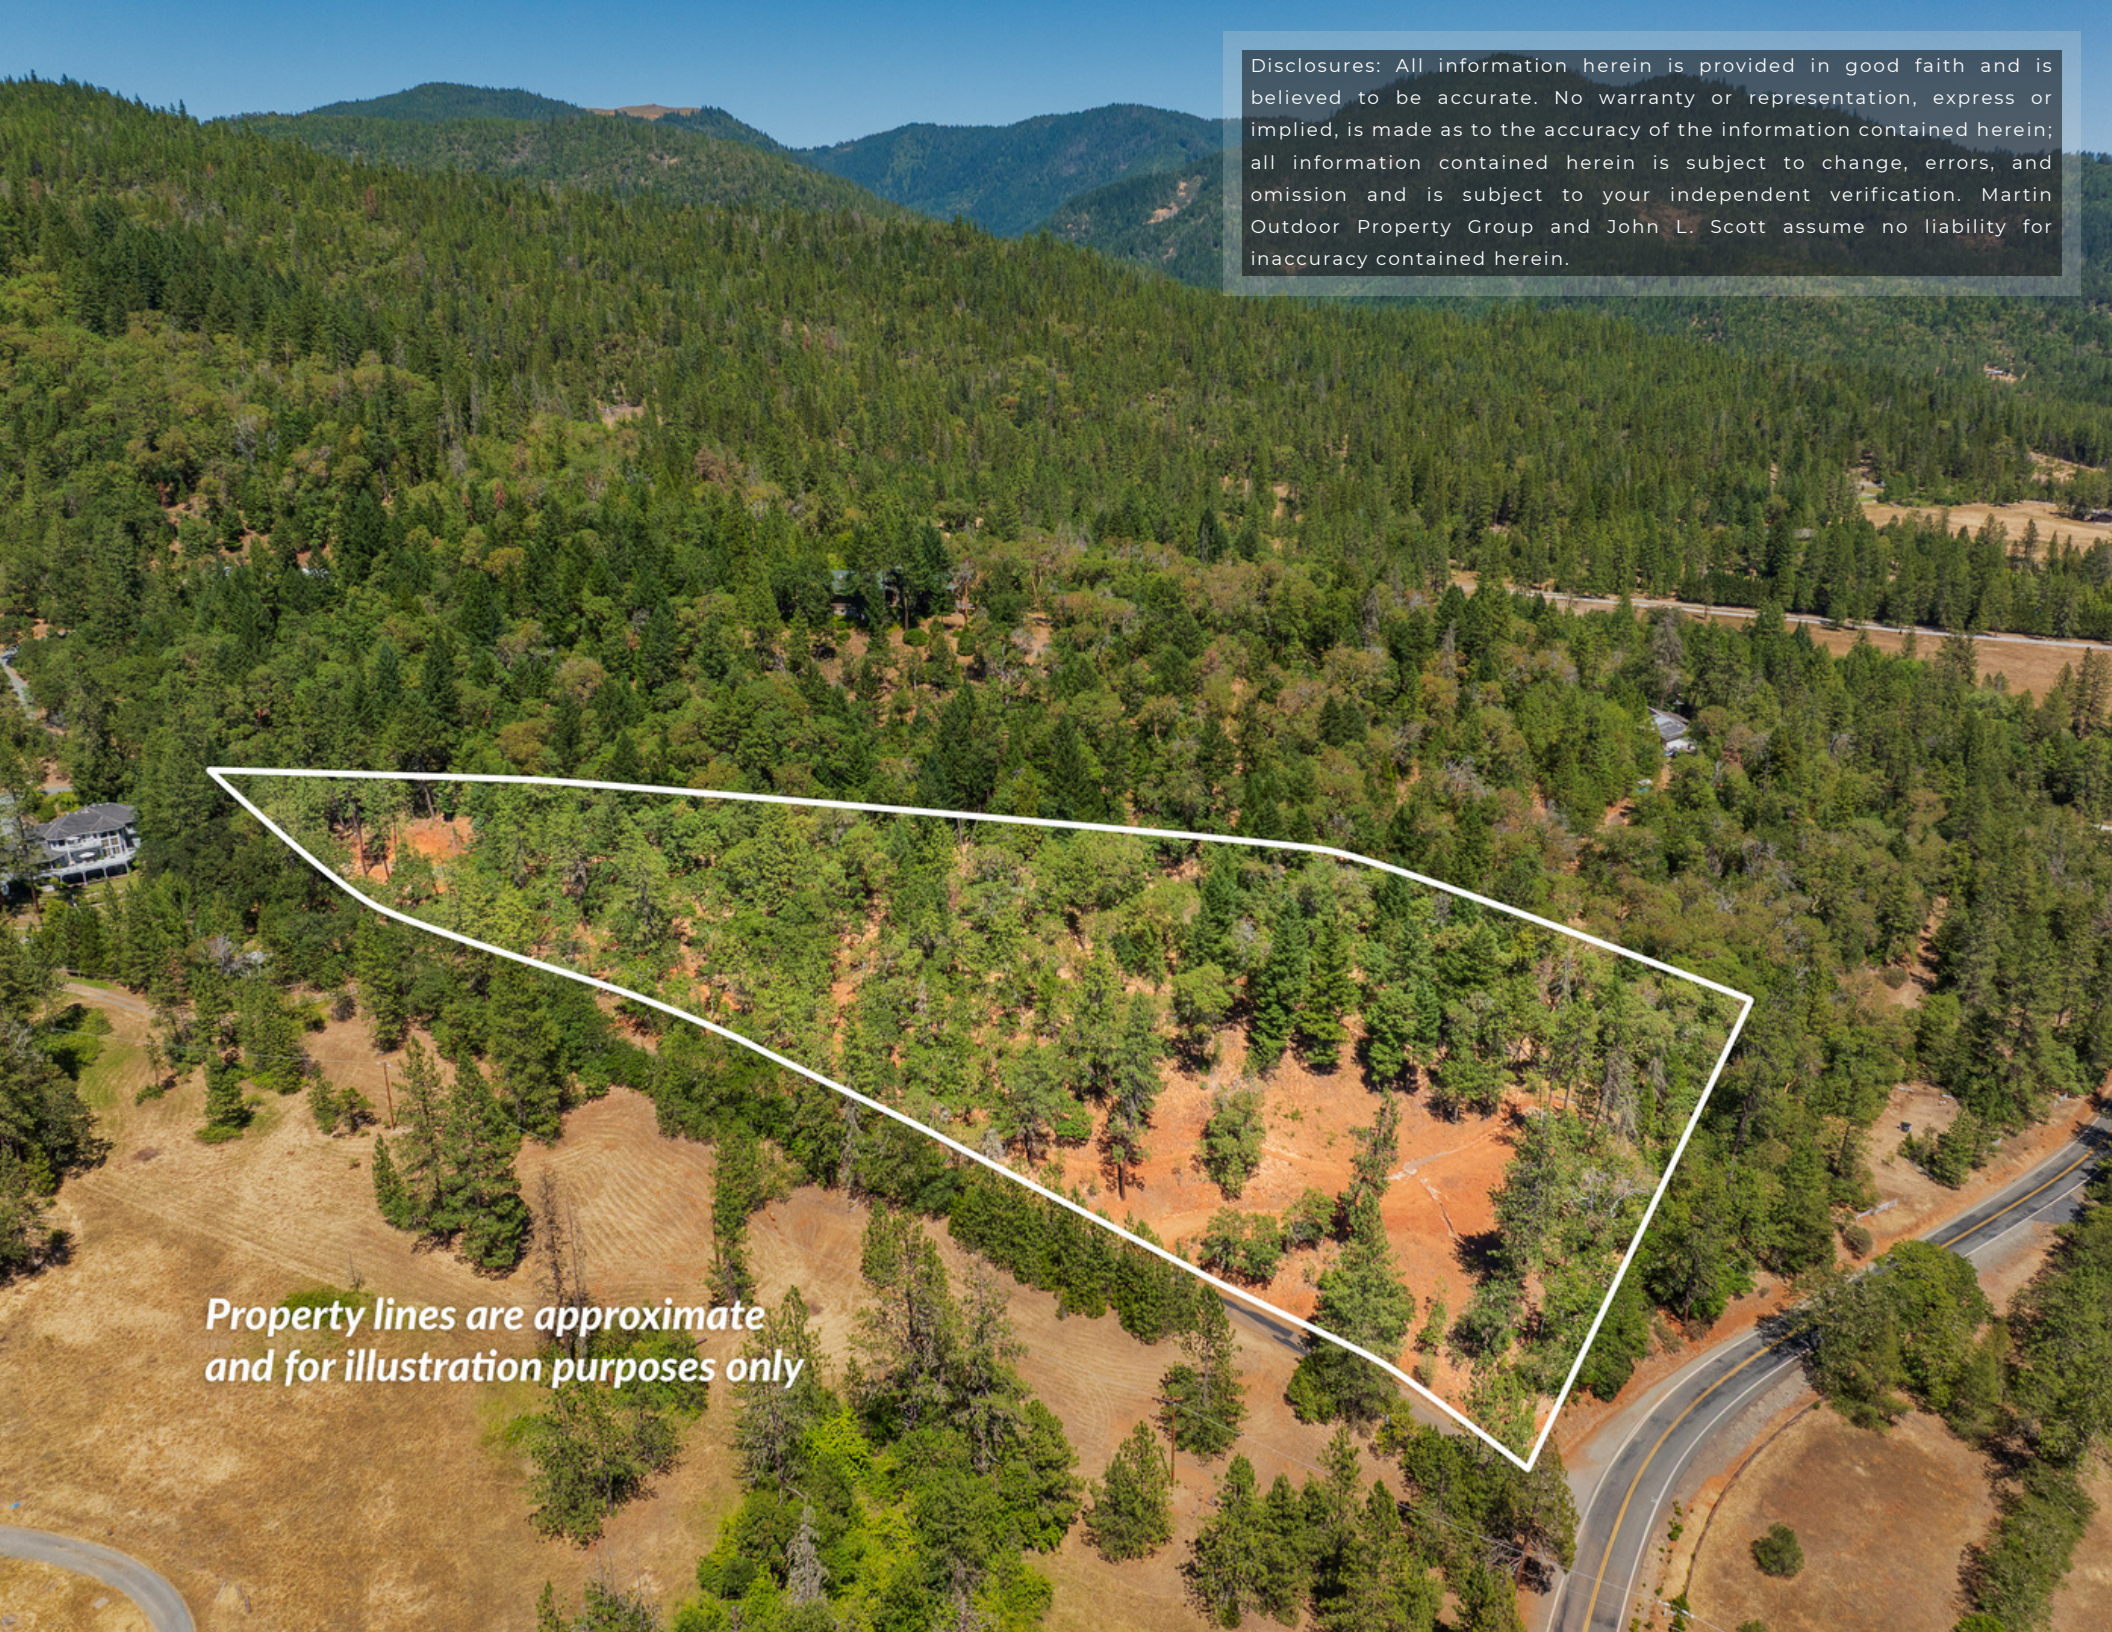

Treed, Private, and Scenic

The setting offers the privacy and character many buyers look for in rural Southern Oregon land. Mature trees, sloped terrain, and mountain views create a quiet natural backdrop for a future home.

Close to Grants Pass and Outdoor Recreation

Located in Josephine County, the property provides access to Grants Pass amenities while still offering a rural lifestyle. The surrounding area is known for outdoor recreation, including rivers, hiking, fishing, rafting, public lands, and the broader Rogue Valley lifestyle.
